PLAY GOLF IN RAIN

Pokes Fun at What Newspaper Says of Him.

ROCKEFELLER HAS HIS JOKE

Reports That the Oil King is Ill Are Not Borne Out by His Daily Exercise and Healthy Lung Capacity—Has Another Golf Match for Monday.

CLEVELAND, August 3.—"I learn from the newspapers that I am dangerously ill and also that I have started on a secret mission to Chicago," remarked John D. Rockefeller today as he began his daily game of golf.

"What I learn about myself in the newspapers is frequently very interesting; very interesting indeed," and he smiled.

Mr. Rockefeller has not missed his daily game of golf in a month. Today at least he played in the rain rather than give up his fun and exercise. The good drive on the first hole was succeeded by a top-ball from the second tee that rolled some 75 yards and stopped.

"You must have pressed," suggested one of the golfers.

"The power of the press to spoil any sort of a drive is wonderful," commented Mr. Rockefeller gravely. "By the way, have I had that operation yet, or am I to have it soon?" he asked. "I have an engagement to play golf Monday and the papers must get me to Minnesota and back in time for that, or I shall discharge them from the case."

On the last hole Mr. Rockefeller's aid: "I have made the mistake all the morning of trying to tie you gentlemen. I also tried to beat you. That is where many people make a mistake in life. They try to do as well as somebody else when the thing is to try to do better."

Then the philosopher stood over his ball and won the hole with a seven-foot put.

So with a hearty laugh, from healthy powerful lungs and a vigorous wave of his hand in farewell, Mr. Rockefeller rode his wheel rapidly away.

NEW MAIL SERVICE.

British Liner Lusitania Will Make Better Mail Service.

LONDON, Aug. 3.—The trial of the Cunard Company's new huge liner, the Lusitania, in which she averaged 25 1/4 knots has led the officers of the company to issue a statement that the mails of the Lusitania leaving New York on Saturday should be delivered at the general postoffice in London early Friday morning. The Campania and the Lucania, now the fastest British steamships reach England in time to have their mails delivered in London on Saturday morning. Hence about a day will be gained, perhaps more, by the Lusitania's carrying of the mails both to and from New York.

The American Express Company and other firms which have large mails say that the earlier arrival will be of great value because it will enable banks and commercial houses to catch the Saturday return mails.

TUSKEGEE TO BE TAX FREE.

Alabama House Votes Down Bill Aimed at Institution.

MONTGOMERY, Ala., August 3.—The house of representatives yesterday voted down a bill to tax the property of Booker T. Washington School at Tuskegee.

There were several sensational speeches on the bill, one member declaring that the school should be wiped off the earth, and that it was the South's greatest curse.

Most of the members, however, look upon the school as a great factor in the development of Alabama and the South, and as a powerful influence for the settlement of the race question.

A commission appointed by the legislature to investigate the school recently made a most flattering report.
